

Terminology Management

A process-oriented approach for the automobile industry

- solution to typical corporate terminology problems
- case study for the automobile industry
- focus on multilingual documentation and translation processes
- analysis of requirements for effective terminology management
- standardized process for multilingual terminology management
- interdisciplinary approach accounts for process management and product lifecycle management

